THE MAGIC FORMULA

EVERY SO OFTEN AN ARTIST AND A SONG GET TOGETHER AND BLEND IN SUCH A WAY THAT THEY JUST SEEM TO BE MADE FOR EACH OTHER. THE EVENTUAL OUTCOME OF THIS USUALLY LEADS UP TO A GIGANTIC HIT. IT HAS A CERTAIN SOUND THAT THE MUSIC INDUSTRY SEEMS TO SENSE AS HAVING THAT TREMENDOUS POTENTIAL. NO OTHER ARTIST IN THE PAST HISTORY PROVEN THIS OUT WITH SUCH GREAT THAN LEFTY FRIZZELL. "IF IT PROVES AS 'MY BUCKETS GOTTA HOLE IN IT,' 'THE MOM AND DAD WALTZ,' 'SAGINAW SONGS AS 'THE MOM AND DAD WALTZ,' 'SAGINAW TIME.' 'ALWAYS LATE.' AND 'SAGINAW MICHIGAN.' NOW COMES THE SONG THAT SHOULD WELL BE THE BIGGEST OF THEM ALL. 'AN ARTICLE FROM LIFE.' FOR IT DEFINITELY HAS THAT CERTAIN SOUND.

'AN ARTICLE FROM LIFE'

It took Claude King nine years to pay tribute to a friend.

You'll remember that on November 5, 1960, Johnny Horton lost his life. Well, ever since that day Claude King's main goal has been to pay tribute to his lifelong friend and one of the greatest entertainers in music.

After nine years, his newest album, I Remember Johnny Horton, fulfills that dream.

One song, in particular, from the album—a single—reflects the close friendship of the two:

"All for the Love of a Girl." 4-44833

We think that this single is sheer perfection. We also think it's a perfect way for all of us to pay tribute to the great Johnny Horton.

Campbell Captures 3 Top Country Awards

LOS ANGELES—It was Glen Campbell's night as he won three top awards in the fourth annual Academy of Country and Western Music Awards presentation, Monday (28) at the Hollywood Palladium.

Campbell was named top male vocalist, top TV personality and co-recipent with Bobbie Gentry for the album of the year. Campbell was also entered in the lead guitar competition but a local player, Jimmy Bryant, won the award for the fourth consecutive year.

An audience of approximately 1,400 persons attended the show and presentation in 24 categories. For the first time the show was opened to the public, with country station KBBQ broadcasting live from the location.

Two special awards were given, the first pioneer's award to 80-year-old Art Satherly, an early discoverer and recorder of country singers, and the director's award to Western clothing Nudie. Tommy Smothers was named country music man of the year for his presentation of c&w artists on national TV.

Cathie Taylor was named top female vocalist, with Cheryl Poole and Ray Sanders winning most promising female and male vocalist, respectively.

"Wichita Lineman" won as song of the year with composer

Jimmy Webb accepting his trophy. Roger Miller was on hand to accept for "Little Green Apples" as the single record of the year.

Entertainment was provided between awards by the Dillards, Hank Thompson, Molly Bee, Roy Clark, George Lindsey, Willie Nelson and Tex Williams.

Dick Clark was master of ceremonies, aptly holding together Hugh Cherry's script. Billy Liebert conducted a 30-piece orchestra which blended a modern country sound with some rather brassy and swinging charts.

Acting as presenters were Ken Curtis, Judy Lynn, Irene Ryan, Mark Slade, Linda Crystal, Roger Miller, Herb Eisman, Jimmy Webb, Melody Patterson, Johnny Bond, Tex Ritter, Leif Erickson, Della Reese, Glen Campbell, Jim Nabors and Dinah Shore.

The other winners: bass—Wooten; drums—Jerry Wiggins; fiddle—Billy Armstrong; piano—Earl Ball; steel guitar—Red Rhodes; local nightclub—Palomino; regional nightclub—Golden Nugget, Las Vegas; radio personality—Larry Scott, KBBQ; regional radio personality—Tex Williams; touring band—Buckaroos; nightclub band—Billy Mize's Tennesseans; vocal group—Johnny and Jonie Mosby.

A Park Featuring Country Music to Open Near Canada

PORT HURON, Mich.—Grand opening of an international park just 10 miles from the Canadian-U. S. border will take place Memorial Day, May 30. The park, to feature country music, is located near the International Bridge connecting Michigan and Ontario.

The opening day program will feature Kitty Wells show in the afternoon and evening. On the following day, emphasis will be on bluegrass music with Jimmy Martin, Jim and Jesse, Ralph Stanley and the Sunny Siders and other groups on stage.

On Sunday, a large Canadian contingent is expected to be on hand for Hank Snow and the Rainbow Ranch Boys, Myrna Lorie and the Lorie Show Band with Steve Glenn.

Dodge City, a spokesman said, would become the country music headquarters for North Central U. S. and Ontario, and a "rallying point" for all country music. The park has a setting identical to western frontier times.

The new 3,000-seat "Old Opera House" is the main show attraction, however. In addition to the Kitty Wells show, other acts already booked in are the Ray Price Show, Merle Haggard and the Fugitives, Faron Young, Ernest Tubb and the Texas Troubadours, the Joe Pain Show, Waylon Jennings, the Myrna Lorie Show plus Steve Glenn, Jimmy Dickens, Carl and Pearl Butler, Skeeter Davis, Red Sovine, Dottie West Show, Jim Ed Brown and the Germs, the Glaser Brothers, and the Ken Kennedy Show.

Opening day shows are scheduled for 2 and 5 p.m.

Portrait of a new star:

Barbara Fairchild is a gifted country singer. She's been performing since she was five. And writing country music almost as long.

Now, at eighteen, Barbara has made appearances on the Bill Anderson and Billy Walker television shows. (Seen in more than 150 markets.)

Her first single is on Columbia Records. Produced by Billy Sherrill.

And it sounds like a smash to us. "LOVE IS A GENTLE THING" (4-44797) by Barbara Fairchild.

Fresh Country Air.

That's Johnny Duncan's new single, "When She Touches Me." Johnny gives a gentle country feeling to this R&B hit that is being played by country and western stations from Nashville to Natchez. They're picking up on the sound of a young man with a big voice "swinging" in a country groove. Johnny Duncan. A breath of fresh country air. Johnny Duncan

"Never More"
Quote the Raven may never make Bartlett's, but watch
how familiar it becomes on the charts.

A quote from a raven in Stonewall Jackson's newest single may not be worthy of Bartlett's, but dozens of stations around the country think it's very worthy of being Stonewall's biggest single yet. From Birmingham to L.A. DJ's are playing "Never More." Quote the Raven and people are listening. And you just can't get any more familiar than that.

It took Claude King nine years to pay tribute to a friend.

You'll remember that on November 5, 1960, Johnny Horton lost his life. Well, ever since that day, Claude King's main goal has been to pay tribute to his lifelong friend and one of the greatest entertainers in music.

After nine years, his newest album, I Remember Johnny Horton, fulfills that dream.

One song, in particular, from the album—a single—reflects the close friendship of the two:

"All for the Love of a Girl"

This week the single is number 15 and climbing. The album is number 24 and climbing. Obviously, Claude isn't the only one who remembers Johnny Horton.

Singles People Play

That's the kind of song that Freddie Weller records. And he's done it again with his new single,

"These Are Not My People."

The logical successor to his last monster hit.

The Johnny Duncan Story

A brief biography on Nashville's most dynamic new recording star

John Richard Duncan spent his boyhood days helping his father raise peanuts and other crops on his parents' farm in Dublin, Texas.

His mother says he was singing before school age. And John remembers playing his first guitar at about 12.

As a senior, John was a towering 6'4" and loved to play basketball. "It was," John says, "second fiddle to my pickin' and singin'." If I hadn't loved to sing and write songs so much, I probably would have considered trying to make a living in the sports world."

After graduation from Dublin High, John played with the Texas Village Boys. Worked as a blacksmith. And also as a bricklayer.

It was in Nashville in 1966 that he got his big break. "I was appearing on the Bobby Lord Show, not knowing that Don Law of Columbia would be watching. When I got off the show he called and said he wanted to record me."

Since John's first recording in November, 1966, every one of his singles has reached the charts. Including his current hit

"When She Touches Me"

And his first album, Johnny One Time, has just been released.

If this young man keeps going like he has been, you may have to pay to see his story next time.

The song that once made you smile, makes you smile again. But sadly.

"Raining in My Heart."

Now sung by Ray Price. A great song. A standard that's suddenly on the charts again as a big Columbia single.

53 with a bullet. And that's a happy thing for all of us.

But there's more. Because over the years "Raining in My Heart" has become so strongly connected with Buddy Holly. And hearing it now—even in this new release—inevitably touches his memory.

Sad. But sad as it is, it's a good memory. One that maybe no one wants to forget.

"MOLLY"

74-0231

Jim Glaser sings of MOLLY with aching tenderness sharing the pain of one who never had a chance to love.

Listen to the story and let MOLLY's loneliness make beautiful things happen to your mind.

"I'VE BEEN LOVING YOU TOO LONG
(To Stop Now!)" 4-44955
IS MOVING UP THE CHARTS TOO FAST
(To Stop Now!).

Barbara Mandrell has enough people listening to her sad story, it's already jumped to Number 56. THERE'S NO STOPPING IT NOW! On Columbia Records

TRAINING THE UNSKILLED MINORITIES ISN'T JUST FOR GIANTS

This workbook of ideas shows what smaller companies can do, too...

Kendall Manufacturing Co. learned that it is easier for a small company to teach the unskilled than a large manufacturer. In a small plant, says President Lowell Kendall, the unskilled trainee has the opportunity to work alongside an experienced worker. In a large plant, classroom instruction is mandatory. The Crouse-Hinds Co. offers "off-the-job" training to employees so that they can qualify for better positions as openings occur.

Oxford Chemicals feels a smaller firm like itself is in a better position to attract and train head-core unemployables because they feel it is hard to compete within a large corporation. Oxford finances its own training program, sending employees to school at night. Each trainee is assigned to a trainer of the same ethnic group.

I'd rather fight than switch from MUSIC SCENE.

When will we learn to live in peace?

The last thing they expected to hear in a Las Vegas nightclub was 'America, the Beautiful'

Of course, they weren't expecting Judy Lynn, either. But there she was at Caesars Palace, playing to full houses every show.

And included in that show, "America, the Beautiful" Her latest Columbia single. (4-44981)

Not strangely, her audiences found the song fitting. Because night after night she turned slick sophisticates into Country music fans. And Judy Lynn fans. Which probably explains the demand for her newest Columbia album, Judy Lynn Sings at Caesars Palace.

All her old fans want to hear her Las Vegas show. And all her new fans just don't want to forget it.

TRAINING THE UNSKILLED MINORITIES ISN'T JUST FOR GIANTS

This workbook of ideas shows what smaller companies can do, too...

Kendall Manufacturing Co. learned that it is easier for a small company to teach the unskilled than a large manufacturer. In a small plant, says President Lowell Kendall, the unskilled trainee has the opportunity to work alongside an experienced worker. In a large plant, classroom instruction is mandatory.

The Crouse-Hinds Co. offers "off-the-job" training to employees so that they can qualify for better positions as openings occur.

Oxford Chemicals feels a smaller firm like itself is in a better position to attract and train hard-core unemployables because they feel it is hard to compete within a large corporation. Oxford finances its own training program, sending employees to school at night. Each trainee is assigned to a trainer of the same ethnic group.

Connecticut Gal Takes Contest

PALISADES, N.J. — Rosemarie Termini, East Haven, Conn., singer, was the winner of the fourth annual Mountain Dew Country Music Talent Contest here.

The 20-year-old vocalist already has launched a professional career as a result of the contest. She has been booked with Smokey Warren at the New Jersey State Fair in Trenton, at the Country Music Spectacular at White Plains, N.Y., and an appearance on the WVVVA Jamboree in Wheeling, W. Va. The Palisades contest is sponsored by the Pepsi-Cola Metropolitan Bottling Company.

The first runner-up in the contest was Don Parker and the Troubles Half Brothers, a teenage country music band from Camden County, Ohio. They won a weekend engagement at Highland, N.Y. Second runnerup spot went to Wayne Phillips, of New Milford, N.Y.

June Stearns
is not just the singer.
She's the song.

And the song is a hit.

It's "Drifting Too Far."

Already picked to hit the top 20
by Billboard.

They called it "an exceptional, soulful performance...a sure-fire winner for top chart honors...a potent entry."

When you get way down deep into a sad song, when you become the song like June does, it's bound to hurt a little. Maybe having a hit will ease the pain.

"Drifting Too Far."

YOUR WORLD IS AS BIG AS YOU MAKE IT.

David Rogers has gotten it down to one person.

His single, "A World Called You," came on the charts at number 71. And went to 69. And then 51. And now it's 35.

The numbers are getting smaller. But, you might say his world is getting bigger.

COLLECTION

Arts & Charts

The complete Country Music Charts exactly as they appeared in Billboard magazine from 1944 to the present, in high resolution, taken from the celebrated magazine's pages.

From the owner of COUNTRY MUSIC DATABASE® who has one of the largest collections in the world (with records, videos, magazines, books and comics) comes his latest epic project!

More than 70 years of Country Music Charts from the beginning. The volumes are published in random order (like Marvel's beautiful series "The Epic Collection").
